

Fill-in-the-Blank Exercises for Idioms Containing “new” (36 Questions Total)

Brand new: Completely new and unused.

A new broom sweeps clean: A person who has just been put in charge of

Turn over a new leaf: To start behaving in a better way; to make a fresh start by improving one's conduct.

The new kid on the block: Someone or something that is new in a place, group, or situation and has not yet been fully accepted or tested.

A new lease of life (A new lease on life): A chance to live longer or to have a healthier or more energetic life; renewed energy or enthusiasm.

What's new?: Used as an informal greeting to ask someone what has been happening in their life recently.

Nothing new under the sun: Used to say that there is nothing original or truly new; everything has been done or experienced before.

Break new ground: To do something that has not been done before; to pioneer or innovate in a particular area.

New blood: New members joining a group or organization, bringing fresh ideas and energy.

Teach an old dog new tricks: Used (often negatively as "You can't teach an old dog new tricks") to say that it is difficult to make someone learn new things when they are older or set in their ways.

Be the new something: used to say that something is now more popular or fashionable than the thing that it replaces

New pastures (greener pastures/pastures new):a new place or activity that offers new opportunities

Fill-in-the-Blank Exercises for Idioms Containing “new” (36 Questions Total)

1. After the surgery, he got a _____
_____.
2. The new manager fired half the staff in his first month. Well,
_____.
3. This season, orange is _____
_____.
4. Hey, long time no see! _____?
5. I just bought a car — it's _____!
6. The team needs some _____ to bring fresh ideas.
7. Every story has been told before — there's _____
_____.
8. As the _____,
she felt a bit nervous on her first day.

9. This research will _____.

10. After working here for 15 years, he's looking for _____.

11. He refuses to learn how to use smartphones — you _____ an _____.

12. The phone looks _____, as if it has never been used.

13. When I meet my old friend, I always say “_____?”

14. She promised to _____ a _____ and stop smoking.

15. Experts say electric cars are _____ in the auto industry.

16. The old house was renovated and now has a _____.

17. Tesla was once the _____ in the electric car industry.

18. Hiring young graduates injects _____ into the company.

19. He thinks his idea is original, but actually there's _____.

20. Many young people move abroad in search of _____.

21. These shoes are not second-hand; they are _____.

22. Her novel _____ in literature by combining science fiction and philosophy.

23. People say " _____ " when a new leader wants to reform everything fast.

24. My grandpa won't use email. You know, you _____ an _____.

25. Ten years ago, cupcakes were _____
_____; everyone wanted them.

26. The company hopes to _____ with their latest product.

27. If you really want to change, you need to _____ a
_____.

28. Moving to the countryside gave her a _____
_____.

29. We welcomed the _____ who joined us last month.

30. Everyone is curious about the _____
_____, the company that just moved into our area.

31. The saying "you _____ an _____
_____" means older people resist
change.

32. She left the company to seek _____ elsewhere.

33. When she took over the department, she made many changes quickly — _____.

34. After the accident, he decided to _____ a _____.

35. “_____?” is a casual way to ask how someone has been recently.

36. The phrase “_____” means everything has happened before.

Answers

1. new lease of life
2. a new broom sweeps clean
3. the new black
4. What's new
5. brand new
6. new blood
7. nothing new under the sun
8. new kid on the block
9. break new ground
10. new pastures
11. can't teach, old dog new tricks
12. brand new
13. What's new
14. turn over, new leaf
15. the new black
16. new lease of life
17. new kid on the block
18. new blood
19. nothing new under the sun
20. new pastures (或 greener pastures)

21. brand new
22. breaks new ground
23. a new broom sweeps clean
24. can't teach, old dog new tricks
25. the new black
26. break new ground
27. turn over, new leaf
28. new lease of life
29. new blood
30. new kid on the block
31. can't teach, old dog new tricks
32. new pastures
33. a new broom sweeps clean
34. turn over, new leaf
35. What's new
36. nothing new under the sun

你可以直接复制以上内容到 Word 或 TXT 文件中打印或保存使用。题目已完全打乱顺序，答案统一放在最后。如果需要调整格式（如加空格线、分页等），随时告诉我！